

Instrumental Tutor

Job Description

Contract: Casual

Salary: £30 per hour

Location: Hobart High School, Norwich, NR14 6JU

Main Purpose of the Role To provide high quality instrumental tuition to students, inspiring a love of music and supporting their musical development.

Key Responsibilities

- Teach instrumental lessons to a high standard.
- Inspire students with a love of learning and making music.
- Deliver high quality, differentiated instrumental tuition to individuals, tailored to meet the needs of all learners.
- Plan and prepare high quality lessons and music examination entry, including sourcing and arranging music as required.
- Maintain good discipline and behaviour at all times, with due regard for pupils' health, safety and well-being.
- Undertake any other reasonable duties requested by the Head of Music.

Person Specification

Qualifications and training

- Relevant music qualification (e.g. Grade 8 or equivalent in instrument taught, music degree or diploma)
- Evidence of continuing professional development in music or education

Experience

- Experience of teaching instrumental music to young people, ideally in a school setting
- Experience of preparing students for music examinations (desirable)

Skills and knowledge

- Excellent instrumental skills in your area of specialism
- Good understanding of effective teaching and learning strategies for music
- Ability to differentiate lessons to suit a range of abilities and needs
- Good organisational and planning skills
- Knowledge of safeguarding procedures in a school context

Personal qualities

- Enthusiastic and passionate about inspiring young people through music
- High expectations for all students
- Commitment to upholding and promoting the ethos and values of the school
- Professional, reliable and flexible approach
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team